POLITICAL.

Roosevelt was pelted with eggs and stale vegetables at Elmira, N. Y.

A fourth Louisville republican has bet $10,000 that Yerkes will win by 10,000.

Gov. McCreary will wind up the campaign with a speech at Richmond Monday.

At Lockport Teddy Roosevelt was asked some questions he found it not convenient to answer.

Mr. Yerkes is credited with saying at Washington that he is sure to be elected, but that he would be counted out.

Col. Dixon, of Frankfort, spoke at Harbortonville, and the roads thinking he was Bradley, yelled themselves hoarse.

The republicans paid the expenses of 150 Middleboro Negroes to Pineville in order to swell the crowd for Bradley.

This last week of the campaign seems reserved for the blast to step forward and shoot off their blank powder charges.—Lon. Times.

Over 10,000 people heard Gov. Beckham and Ollie James at Fulton. A feature was a torchlight parade about two miles in length.

Mr. Yerkes called on the president at Canton and told his tale of woe. He will have another tale to tell after next Tuesday.

At the republican rally at Pineville democrats were warned to stay away from the court-house and one man who cheered for Bryan was knocked down stairs.

Gov. Bradley's speech at Pineville had the contrary effect from what was desired. It made democrats instead of republicans.

The Danville News wants to know whether Yerkes went East to procure the shews of war or another stock of civil liberty.

Hon. W. B. Smith, of Richmond, has been called upon by the democratic National committee to devote all his time before election to a tour of the State, and he has accepted.

Another attempt is being made to hold up the Kentucky campaign-holders at Washington for campaign funds. The attention of the civil service commission will be called to the matter.

Capt. H. S. Irwin, republican candidate for Congress, surprised his neighbors in Louisville by entertaining a Negro band in his parlor and personally serving them with refreshments.

W. C. Owens, formerly of Scott county, registered in Louisville as a republican. This is better than registering as a democrat and voting republican as no doubt he has been doing for years.

This reporter who claims to have interviewed Mr. Cleveland makes out that the ex-president told him exactly what he printed. So you pay your money and take your choice which you will believe.

John Sherman left a fortune of $2,500,000. He was for 35 years in public life, his salary in that time amounting to something like $200,000. His biographer would gladly public curiosity by telling how he became a multimillionaire.

Hon. John G. Carlisle says there is no authority for the presence of Federal deputy marshals and supervisors at the polls, the act authorizing it having been repealed February 8th, 1891. The republicans, however, still claim the right to have Federal "inspectors" of elections present at the polls.

William Newman, a prominent member of the republican county committee of New York, has left the committee and party because of the trusts. He will vote the democratic ticket, and says of his followers: "I don't know. His letter offering his services to Tammany Hall was endorsed by 21 republicans."

Officials at the department of justice in Washington admit the correctness of Mr. Carlisle's opinion relative to the appointment of Federal deputy marshals at elections. They say, however, that they have no official notice of any contest and no appointment of such deputies and are not at all such information comes through the proper channels.

Hon. John Henry Wilson, ex-Congressman from the 11th district, was in the city en route to Frankfort. Asked what the republican majority in the district would be, Mr. Wilson said it would not exceed 18,000 and probably not go over 17,000. All the good democrats are in line for Bryan, and Beckham and some republicans will vote for him, consequently Taylor's vote will not be reached.—Lon. Morning Dem.

The following is telegraphed from Middleboro. The majority of the better classes of this section are anxious to see Yerkes beaten for many reasons. Not that they have anything against him personally, but in the mountains the election is a matter which concerns their business, social and personal affairs. If Yerkes is elected the people fear it will become the wrong-fasting of the mountain toughs; that East Kentucky will become so lawless that it will be impossible for people of respectability to make their homes here. Already expressions which hint of what may be expected are being heard among the lawless element. The fears of the people may not be realized, but they do not care to take chances.

At the close of his tour of New York, during which he made 110 speeches, Mr. Bryan said: "That the party has made immense gains since 1896 is admitted by the republicans. If the reports, which come from the various counties where polls have been made, can be taken as representing the general sentiment throughout the State, we have more than an even chance of carrying New York." Executive Chairman McGuffee, of the democratic committee, says: "Our canvass of the State gives Bryan 50,000 majority, and it also shows that the republicans will not come to the Bronx with more than 70,000 majority." From other sources the news is even more reassuring and there seems many reasons for the belief that the Empire State will do the right thing next Tuesday, even if Teddy is a candidate.

The little French count, who married Jay Gould's daughter, is wasting his money so rapidly he has had the courts to put her estate in the hands of her brother, George, as trustee. This count will now doubtless turn her over to her brother George also, as the money was the consideration that caused him to enter into the marriage contract and since there has been a failure of consideration he will not care to abide by its terms.

Mr. Homer Baughman and Miss Virginia Caldwell, daughter of the late W. A. Caldwell, were married Wednesday evening at the First Presbyterian church in Danville by Dr. E. M. Green, the Rev. H. A. Samrell assisting. The bridesmaid was Miss Carrie Vanarsdale, of Harrodsburg, and the other attendants were Eugene Pope, A. C. Van Winkle and E. V. The action arose out of the council in taxing saloon license at $800 on certain streets and $200 on other streets of the town. The lower court held that the license must be the same all over the town, and the court affirms that decision.

Before I write again the vote will be cast, deciding whether the form of government, for which our fathers fought, shall be maintained, whether trusts and monopolies shall still oppress the people, and whether the military or civil rule shall prevail. To decide these questions on the right side place the stencil in the circle under the rooster.

The blind tigers are rapidly disappearing and we expect to build school houses on their foundations.

The officials at the L. & N. depot at Richmond were not a little surprised the other day when the train over the Rawlston branch pulled in minus the express, mail and passenger cars. Engineer Lammers, who was certain that the coaches were attached when the train left Fort Estill, three miles from Richmond, was at a complete loss to comprehend the situation, but finally went back over the road with his engine and made connection with the missing cars near Fort Estill, where they had broken loose from the rest of the train.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY.
This is the way to vote the Straight Democratic Ticket.

BRYAN has his election won hands down. He is now on the home stretch with his rival badly distanced. With the exception of the shouting the race is over. There is but one glimmering shadow of a hope for the republicans, which is to thwart the will of the people by the lavish expenditure of money in the doubtful States. This is hardly possible though, and not at all probable, as the people are so thoroughly aroused and disgusted with republican mismanagement it is impossible to turn the tide, but the effort will be made, and it is a sad commentary that such a thing should be mentioned as being among the possibilities of changing the result of a presidential election. It shows the existence of a terrible state of affairs and one for which the republican party is entirely responsible. Having developed amid the disorder of civil war, it began its career in plunder and it has been a party of plunder ever since and a living exemplification of the truth that the love of money is the root of all evil. It has been its policy to make the rich richer and the poor poorer. For years it undertook to conceal its real position by sophistical arguments of talented speakers and writers, but the disguise is now thrown off and the only argument it offers in favor of the unlawful combinations of wealth is to extort money from those combinations with which to purchase the elections. Money is now its only argument. Able speakers and writers are things of the past. The chief campaigner is a coarse, unlettered ignoramus, a bloated bondholder who occupies a purchased seat in the United States Senate, for which he is in no wise fitted, and who makes no secret of the fact that he is endeavoring to purchase the presidency. Years ago his effrontery would have won him a coat of tar and feathers and he deserves it now. The people, however, will show their disgust on election day for the party that produces such creatures.

THE Louisville Post devotes a whole page to the confession of Finley Anderson that he was hired to swear a lie which it heads "Powers Vindicated." It will be hard for the average reader of that meanest of all the assassination organs to understand how, if Anderson had been bribed to recant his story, that vindicates Powers. He was not convicted on Anderson's testimony alone, but on overwhelming proof, oral and circumstantial, that he conspired to have Gov. Goebel assassinated. No honest man doubts his guilt or that he should have gotten a death sentence instead of a life sentence.

IN every election since the system of voting by secret ballot was adopted scores of democratic votes have been lost because the voters didn't understand the process, but we have never heard of a Negro losing his vote on this account. If there is a democrat left who doesn't know how to vote, let him learn immediately. Any Negro who give him the necessary instruction.

MR. JOHN W. YERKES has resigned his job as internal revenue collector, but we will guarantee that the resignation has a string tied to it. As soon as the vote is counted in the governor's race the successor of Mr. Yerkes as collector will be appointed and his name will be John W. Yerkes.

THE sports of Indianapolis are trying to make bets that Beckham will carry Kentucky, but can find no takers. Having become acquainted with Taylor, the people of Indianapolis are thoroughly persuaded that Kentucky will not endorse Taylorism.

BRYAN's canvass of New York was as brilliant as a meteor and the light that he shed continues with the permanence of a fixed star.

CLEVELAND denies that he predicted a landslide for Bryan and thereby loses an opportunity of making a reputation as a prophet.

DON'T fail to go the election and vote the democratic ticket after you get there.

THE election of the republican candidate for governor means nothing less than the unconditional pardon of all those indicted for complicity in the murder of William Goebel: the total blocking of the wheels of justice and the tying of the hands of the prosecution. Gov. Beckham has again and again given his opponent an opportunity to deny this, questioning him repeatedly from the stand as to its truth or falsity; but no attempt at denial has been made. On the other hand Gov. Beckham's election will mean that the law will be allowed to take its course, that a thorough investigation of the facts in the case will be made, with the probable ultimate result that the mystery which shadows the fair name of Kentucky will be solved, a result which is due alike to the State, to the individual, to the parties (and especially to that party upon which the responsibility for the escape of the assassin rests) and to the vindication of the honor of the Commonwealth.

MUCH ado was made over the fact that a few over ripe eggs were tossed at Teddy Roosevelt in the wild and woolly West, but he has met a still worse fate in the civilized East and in his own State of New York. At Elmira, he was caught in a shower of decayed eggs, rotten vegetables and vile epithets. Teddy's own people do not seem to appreciate him as highly as he does himself.

THE Rev. T. T. Eaton, of Louisville, will lose his vote because he moved out of his precinct, and threatens to have Judge Evans, of the Federal court, come to his rescue. It strikes the average layman that Bro. Eaton would be more effective as a minister if he would devote more time to fighting the devil and less to raising it.

THE republican office holders are billing the papers with letters to the dear people telling them how Bryan is deceiving them. But the dear people understand fully who it is that is trying to deceive them.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, of coal oil fame, is very angry because a professor in Chicago University compared him to Shakespeare. It strikes us that Shakespeare is the one to get mad.

YOU don't have to square the circle in order to vote properly: just make a X in it, that is in the one under the rooster.

IF you want to save Kentucky from the disgrace of endorsing assassination, vote the democratic ticket next Tuesday.

THE paramount issue in this campaign is whether or not the presidency shall be knocked off to the highest bidder.

UNLESS you want Taylor endorsed and pardoned also, vote for Beckham next Tuesday.

IF you are opposed to an Empire, vote the democratic ticket Tuesday next.

PUR a cross in the circle, but don't cross the ticket.

THE colored brother should demand of the republican bosses his part of Hanna's campaign fund. He does the voting and is entitled to a share of the corruption fund. There is no doubt about the leaders having all the money they want.

THE city council at its meeting last night appointed Messrs. F. J. Foster, Cicero Reynolds and George D. Wear as supervisors for the town and J. H. Greer, R. G. Jones and J. B. Merston extra police for election day. A few claims were allowed and some routine business was transacted, which was the extent of the evening's work.

THE republicans are said to have a barrel of whisky in their headquarters over Christ's church on Lancaster street. That and a big corruption fund will cut quite a figure Tuesday, but if the democrats do their duty we will carry the county in spite of it.

THE Paris Kentuckian says: Inspector Fred Best examined the books and accounts of the Paris post-office, which was recently reported as showing a shortage in its cash account. A discrepancy of $392.31 was found to exist, which was made good by Postmaster J. L. Bosley who will retain the office. A vacancy exists in the office of deputy postmaster.

HON. G. G. GILBERT is in every way fitted for the high office he asks to be re-elected to and every democrat should and will give him his hearty support at the polls next Tuesday. During his short service in Congress he made a reputation that Dr. Williams could never succeed in making should he spend his entire life in the Congressional halls. He is not built that way. Mr. Gilbert is a born statesman. His republican opponent is not and will never make one, even if given the opportunity.

THERE are five tickets on the poll books to be used in the town election at Crab Orchard—four "Citizens' Tickets," represented by a plow, a horse shoe, a wagon and a horse, respectively, and the "Independent Ticket," whose device is a pair of scales. #### CHILDREN'S CLOAKS.

We have just received a big lot of sample garments in the new Box Jackets and Coats, in sizes 8 to 14 years, which we bought at one-third off regular prices. Bring in the children and see how stylish these garments are and how reasonable the prices.

Special Sale of 600 Pairs of $1.50 and $2 Kid Gloves at 79 Cents a Pair.

Wertheimer & Co., one of the largest Kid Glove houses in New York had a fire a few weeks ago and put in too big a claim for damages, so the Insurance companies put the stock up at auction and this is how we can offer you two dollar Gloves at 79c. We were in the market on our second trip and secured 600 pairs at less than half price. Every pair is absolutely in perfect condition and were all made this season.

A MADISON county friend writes us that James H. Walker, of Kirksville, candidate for county clerk, will be nominated beyond doubt. It would be hard to find a better man for the office he seeks.

LITTLE MISS EMMA HUGHES HAYS gave a delightful birthday party to a half hundred of her little friends yesterday afternoon. Nearly all of her guests brought a present. She was 10 years old.

MR. JOHN W. ROUT, a traveling salesman, was in the city yesterday and told the Democrat that from his observations, extending over much of the State, he was sure that Bryan and Beckham would carry it hands down. WHEN you go into the booth next Tuesday remember Goebel, how he labored for the great common people, and how he was cruelly murdered by order of his political adversary, and if you have a drop of democratic blood remaining in your veins you will stamp in the circle under the rooster, as shown on the second page of this paper, and thereby show your condemnation of assassins and assassination.

BLAND BALLARD succeeds John W. Yerkes as collector. He won't hold the office more than a week or so; Yerkes will want it back after Tuesday.

IN a letter from clever Joe Wilkinson, of Liberty, he says his county is all right politically and good reports may be expected from the "State of Casey."

THE attorney general has decided that Dr. John Mason Williams' name must go on the ballots to be used in Mercer and the republicans have nothing at all to kick about now.

WINTER RESORT.—Miss Host Gus Hofmann is making arrangements to run Crab Orchard Springs as a winter as well as summer resort. He should be successful in doing so. There are few more delightful places.

NEWS comes from Monticello that in a debate between Hon. Jas. Bertram and O. H. Waddle, the latter got so badly done up that he shook the dust of the town off his feet before day next morning.

THE Wiborg-Huona plant, it is reported, is to be moved from Junction City. This determination, it is said, was made after the company had spent nearly $2,000 getting ready to rebuild the houses burned some time ago.—Advocate.

BRODHEAD.—Don't forget the democratic rally at Brodhead Saturday when a half dozen good speakers will be on hand. Big preparations are being made and a great time may be expected. THE INTERIOR JOURNAL will have a representative on the ground.

THOSE who heard Geo. B. Sauley's speech at Carter's Store Tuesday night say it was very fine. In fact it was the consensus of opinion that it would have been a credit to a man of double his years and much more experience. He had a crowd of 101 and they gave him the closest attention.

FINLEY ANDERSON'S confession that all he swore to in the trial of Caleb Powers was a lie won't prove the vote catcher that the republican and assassin papers hope. A creature who will swear to a lie once will more than likely do it again and the general impression is that his last lie is his biggest.

THE time for talk is about over and action must take its place. The voters have heard the issues discussed and are thoroughly familiar with them. It is now up to business. The forces must be organized and compactly presented at the polls. No democrat must be allowed to stay away. The issue is too momentous, the result is too far-reaching. Let every man do his duty, and Bryan and Beckham will receive fully 30,000 majority.

GREEN-BRIAR SPRINGS.—In another column will be found an advertisement of Green-Briar Springs. This valuable property will be sold on Monday, Nov. 5th, and offers a splendid opportunity to an energetic man. When run as a summer resort, this was a popular and money-making place, and while it has not been open for some years, has been carefully looked after, and very little would be required to put it in excellent shape to run next season. Green-Briar Springs is one of the prettiest and best located places of the kind in the State, and with its fine water and beautiful scenery offers a tempting opportunity for investment.

NEARLY 400 enthusiastic democrats heard Hon. W. R. Shackelford, of Richmond, at McKinney, Friday night, and he made one of the best speeches that has been heard in Lincoln county this campaign. He spoke from the Commercial Hotel porch and notwithstanding his audience had to stand up his speech of nearly two hours was given rapt attention. Mr. O. H. Waddle, of Somerset, who some four or five years ago deserted the democratic party, got to McKinney before Mr. Shackelford did and was speaking to the crowd when that gentleman arrived. His speech aroused no enthusiasm, though, and he brought it to a close rather abruptly. Mr. Shackelford answered all of his statements and charges thoroughly satisfactory to the crowd and Mr. Waddle, seeing that he was up against it, asked for no rejoinder, but left the scene a sadder but wiser man.
